

Sinatra: Last Call at the Alton Little Theater:
Sunday February 12
Cost $100
Due January 5th

We will travel by coach to Alton's Little Theater to see the concert Sinatra: Last Call. This concert will showcase the Life, Legacy, and Talents of Frank Sinatra's six-decade career. It will remind us all why we can never forget "ole blue eyes!" Our hearts will soar as we remember the power, joy, humor, and beauty of Frank Sinatra performed by Kevin Frakes and company. After the show we will dine in Alton at Santino's where they have authentic Italian Cuisine. Family Owned Santino's Steak and Pasta House offers a variety of homemade meals and gives a warm welcome to all customers. You will choose from one of three entrees: Chicken Marsale, Ribeye with Tempura Shrimp, or Fettuccine Alfredo served with a side salad and drink. Trip includes your ticket to the show, dinner, transportation, and all gratuities. Pickups in Greenville 12:30, Highland 12:50, and 1:00 Marine.
